Day 1 | Arrive Glasgow

Madainn mhath! While your Gaelic may be a little rusty, your visit to Glasgow will be anything but. After checking in, resist the urge to recover from your journey and hit its edgy streets on your own exploration of the sights. Keep a broly at hand so Glasgow's notoriously unpredictable mochie doesn't put a damp end to your sightseeing. And even if it does, there's a cozy pub on every corner to warm your heart with a little local whisky. You'll meet your Travel Director and fellow travelers later for a glimpse into what lies ahead, then spend a free evening perhaps with a wee dram or two at a favorite local.

Hotel: Ibis City Centre

Day 2 | Glasgow Sightseeing and free time

Kick-start your day with a lesson in Glasgow's industrial past and modern revival that have given the city its characteristic gallus strut. Your orientation tour of the city will include views of Glasgow Cathedral and George Square where many of Scotland's famous sons are immortalized in stone. Enjoy views of the People's Palace, the Winter Gardens and the River Clyde, which for over 200 years was the center of shipbuilding.

Meals: Breakfast

Hotel: Ibis City Centre

CHOICE OPTIONAL EXPERIENCES:

The Kelpies and the Falkirk Wheel - Mix things up with a slice of Scottish innovation amid the classic landscapes and historic gems. First stop, the Falkirk Wheel – not just any boat lift, but the world's first rotating one, nestled peacefully between Scotland's linking canals. Then, you're off to marvel at the Kelpies. These colossal metal horse sculptures aren't just art; they're a nod to Scottish folklore and the real-life powerhouses of the canals, all from the mind of Scotland's top modern sculptor.

Adult: 20.00 GBP

Glasgow City Evening - Strap in for a wild Glasgow adventure as the city lights up after dark. Join your Travel Director out on the town for an evening packed with delicious bites, cool drinks, and unforgettable moments. Glasgow's got it all – cozy bars, a killer live music scene, and stunning Victorian architecture. Here's to embracing your inner night owl in a city that throws a party like no other!

Adult: 64.00 GBP

Glasgow's Street Art & Scottish Dinner - Glasgow's Murals Walk takes you on a vibrant journey through the city's history on this MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® experience, from its shipbuilding origins to its activism and celebration of nature, with vivid depictions of solidarity, humor, and Charles Rennie Mackintosh's elegance. Each wall tells a unique story, where street art embraces inclusivity and the city's dynamic spirit. Afterward, a locally-sourced dinner offers a feast of fresh, flavourful ingredients, showcasing the heart of Glasgow's community and connection to the land. Your visit directly supports United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 11 & 12 Sustainable Cities and Communities & Responsible Consumption and Production.

Adult: 72.00 GBP

Day 3 | Glasgow – Glencoe – Scottish Highlands

Channel your inner Highlander next, embarking on a journey north to the banks of Loch Lomond, where a cruise past Rob Roy's cave could be on the cards should you choose to join this Optional Experience. Continue through the 'Glen of Weeping' to see the volcanic ruins and precipitous mountains of Glencoe. Take a moment to remember the MacDonald clansmen who were massacred in 1692 fighting relentlessly for their beliefs. After Fort William, see the Commando Memorial and the Ben Nevis Mountain Range. Head to the heart of the Highlands and your home for the next two nights, where dinner is served at your hotel.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Hotel: Craiglynnne

CHOICE OPTIONAL EXPERIENCES:

Loch Lomond Boat Trip - Set sail along the wild and wonderful 'Bonnie Banks of Loch Lomond', one of Scotland's most breathtaking sights. Cruise across the loch as the skipper shares stories on the area, pointing out must-see spots like Rob Roy's Cave. Kick back, relax, and soak in the jaw-dropping views on this unmissable Scottish adventure.

Adult: 23.00 GBP

Highland Farm Experience - Discover life in the Scottish Highlands with a visit to a genuine Highland sheep farm, where you'll meet Neil the Shepherd and his trusty border collies. Watch as he uses unique whistles to command each dog. You can even get involved in farm life, with the chance to feed the lambs yourself. This authentic, hands-on experience lets you connect with local traditions and get a real feel for Highland life—definitely one for the bucket list!

Adult: 25.00 GBP

Day 4 | Culloden – Loch Ness – Isle of Skye

History buffs, get ready – first up is the dramatic Culloden Battlefield, where Scotland's fate was sealed in one epic showdown. Then it's time to roll past the legendary Loch Ness. Monster sightings? Optional. Epic scenery? Guaranteed. Cameras at the ready as you pass Eilean Donan Castle – it's basically Scotland's cover girl. From there, it's over the sea to the magical Isle of Skye, where a laid-back lunch stop gives time to soak up those wild island vibes. The day wraps with a scenic drive through Highland beauty before arriving back at the hotel for a hearty dinner and a comfy night in.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Hotel: Craiglynnne

Day 5 | Scottish Highlands – Pitlochry – St. Andrews – Edinburgh

Robert Burns once wrote of his beloved hills of the Highlands. Your scenic drive through its mystical landscapes will leave you similarly inspired as you venture to picturesque Pitlochry on the banks of the Tummel. There's time to explore this salmon fishing center on your own or perhaps join an Optional Experience to Blair Castle, home of the Duke of Atholl and Europe's last remaining private army. The fairways and greens of St. Andrews, the birthplace of golf, beckon and you'll have an opportunity to snap a selfie against the backdrop of the famous 18th green. Continue to Edinburgh – the Scottish capital with a mystical air combining ancient heritage with the verve of a modern city. Time your visit to coincide with the rousing The Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo with tickets included on certain departures.

Meals: Breakfast

Hotel: Holiday Inn

CHOICE OPTIONAL EXPERIENCES:

Blair Castle Visit - Step inside Blair Castle, where 750 years of Scottish history aren't just showcased, they're brought to life. From Civil War clashes to royal visits from figures like Mary, Queen of Scots, this place is a direct line to the past. Home to the Dukes of Atholl, it's rich in cultural stories and artifacts for you to discover on your tour. Expect an authentic dive into Scottish heritage, where every room and garden tells a story.

Adult: 31.00 GBP

You will have the opportunity to choose between the following two Choice Experiences:

Ceilidh Evening and Dinner at Ghillie Dhu - Step into the heart of Scottish tradition at Ghillie Dhu. Greeted by the stirring sounds of a Scottish piper, kick things off with a welcome drink. Then, get cozy for a scrumptious three-course feast, all while live Ceilidh tunes get your toes tapping. The star of the show? The iconic Piping in the Haggis ceremony – an unforgettable slice of Scotland.

Adult: 88.00 GBP

* This experience is subject to seasonal availability and will only be offered during the summer months April - October.

Dine Beneath the Iconic Three Bridges of South Queensferry - Take a scenic drive to the iconic Three Bridges spanning the Firth of Forth — the Victorian Forth Rail Bridge, completed in 1890, and the two road bridges, opened in 1964 and 2017, carrying rail and road traffic across the estuary. Enjoy a meal at the Thirty Knots Restaurant, set right beneath these engineering marvels.

Adult: 59.00 GBP

Day 6 | Edinburgh sightseeing and free time

The Georgian New Town, Palace of Holyroodhouse, the Royal Mile and Edinburgh Castle all wait to be viewed in the company of your Local Guide, so grab your camera and prepare for a memorable sightseeing tour revealing all the highlights of Auld Reekie. You'll have plenty of time to explore on your own or consider joining a Choice Experience of an in-depth tour of Edinburgh Castle.

Meals: Breakfast

Hotel: Holiday Inn

CHOICE OPTIONAL EXPERIENCES:

Edinburgh Castle Experience - Don't miss a royal adventure at Edinburgh Castle, reigning supreme on Castle Rock for centuries. Your Local Guide is your go-to for all the action at this fortress, famous for being the ultimate battleground in Great Britain and one of the most attacked fortresses in the world. Hold onto your hats because you're not just sightseeing – you're diving into history! Witness the crown jewels, aka the Honours of Scotland, and march through the epic halls of the National War Museum of Scotland.

Adult: 43.00 GBP

Rosslyn Chapel - Hit the road out of Edinburgh and land in the oh-so-charming village of Rosslyn. Get the inside scoop on the legendary Rosslyn Chapel from your Local Guide. This is not your run-of-the-mill 15th-century building – Rosslyn is like Scotland's very own celebrity, rocking ties with the Knights Templar, the Masonic movement, and even 'The Da Vinci Code'.

Adult: 30.00 GBP

Dinner and Drive to Historic Torphichen - Journey to the historic village of Torphichen, once home to the Knights Templar. At the heart of it all? Kenny, your larger-than-life pub host. Expect a piper's welcome complete with haggis, traditional poetry and songs, a live band, plenty of toasts and a hearty three-course dinner with drinks. It's Scotland at full volume.

Adult: 73.00 GBP

Johnnie Walker's 'Journey of Flavor' Tour & Dinner on the Royal Mile - Jump into a 90-minute adventure with Johnnie Walker Experts guiding the way. This tour's packed with live performances, dazzling light displays and tasty whiskey cocktails — with mocktails available too. Find out what flavors tickle your fancy, then wrap it up with a cozy meal on the Royal Mile.

Children over the age of 8 are welcome if accompanied by an adult 18 years+ at all times. Non-alcoholic options will be provided. Children under 8 are not permitted due to health and safety reasons.

Adult: 81.00 GBP

Day 7 | Depart Edinburgh

Tuck into a hearty Scottish breakfast with tattie scones and all the trimmings. You'll want one final reminder of your epic encounter with Scotland before preparing to return home. Say a fond bye for now to new friends, closing the curtain on a memorable journey through Scotland.

Meals: Breakfast
